CLUB NOTES

Now in reasonably safe position

With our overdue revival happily continuing, and producing eight of the last 10 points at stake, North End now may be said to be in a reasonably safe position after the alarms and anxiety of two months ago. Judging by the look of the table there may yet be a chance of promotion if our success lasts.

A comparison between the results of the last nine League matches and the previous nine shows a considerable gain in points, also a decided improvement in the team's defensive record without any marked loss of penetration.

It will be seen that 18 fewer goals have been conceded in nine matches. One of those against us was a last minute effort by Portsmouth which prevented a goalless draw. North End would have scored more goals if a higher proportion of chances had been taken. This was evident in the game at Rotherham.

Here, in spite of having a soft one soon after the start, and being two down at half time, we rallied to score twice and at least merit a share of the points. But on actual scoring chances North End should have been worthy winners. The Rotherham woodwork was hit three times with the goalkeeper beaten.

Alan Spavin, who played one of his best games by general consent, was terribly unlucky in that fine shots by him twice struck the framework, and he narrowly missed with yet another good attempt. In the closing stages two simple chances of settling the issue were lost by our forwards.

Some surprisingly good football was played considering the heavy state of the ground and its coating of mud. Those who, quite wrongly, say North End are not properly trained should have seen how strongly they finished against a punchy side like Rotherham. There was certainly no lack of stamina.

This season we have lost many points through needlessly giving away goals and failing to round off attacks by missing easy chances. One weakness appears to have been rectified. Now let us hope that the other will be remedied to prove that a tighter defence does not necessarily mean shutting up shop in attack.

KNOW YOUR TEAM 12 Howard Kendall

Howard Kendall is deservedly a Deepdale favourite because he so obviously both enjoys his football and plays it well. Keenness and determination mark every aspect of his game, without ever any suggestion that he could play it other than fairly. Not for him the tantrums and testiness of a talented youngster who cannot bear to lose either the ball or the match. His conduct is exemplary, and that also goes for his demeanour. Enough has happened already during his short football life to give him a big head if that were his nature. Happily it is not. He likes to do well, but there is no swank about the "baby" of our team who was only 18 last May. He had then endured a big-occasion baptism that would have knocked some youngsters sideways, what with all the glamour and publicity that greeted his dramatic call up for the Cup Final and his being the most junior performer ever to take part. No doubt it was all a dizzy whirl for him but he faced the cameras and interviewers as unconcerned as he appeared to be in the match itself. He just got on with his job, and it is Wembley history that his skill, spirit and temperament made as marked an impression on the cognoscenti as when he was captain of England's successful Youth team last season. If he can keep the game in this balanced perspective — and there is no reason why he should not — there is undoubtedly a fine future ahead of this modest and likeable North-country lad from Washington. To-day's was his 25th League game for his first League club and his sterling endeavour already has assured him his place. A thought to conjure with is what degree of fame he will have achieved when he has made his 250th.

POLICE NOTICE TO CAR PARKERS

The co-operation is sought of all motorists who attend Football Matches at Preston North End. It is particularly requested that full use should be made of the car parks which are provided.

Indiscriminate parking of motor vehicles in side streets and upon grass verges causes serious obstruction, annoyance to residents and pedestrians, and damage to grass verges. Where side streets are used for parking, this must be on one side only so as to facilitate the free flow of traffic. Cars must not be left in dangerous positions, obstructing road junctions or across garage entrances.

The Police hope that all motorists will comply with this notice. By so doing they will avoid being prosecuted for inconsiderate use of the highway.

Spectators, particularly our Juvenile Supporters are requested to keep off the playing area. The practice of encroaching on the pitch can lead to incidents, which could result in the closing of the ground by the Football Association.

PLEASE SEE THAT THE PLAYING AREA IS KEPT CLEAR OF SPECTATORS AT ALL TIMES.

OUR VISITORS—Ipswich Town

A hearty welcome to Ipswich Town, whose only previous visit to Deepdale was on February 20th, 1954, for a fifth round F.A. Cup-tie. North End won it by 6-1, Tom Finney (1), Charlie Wayman (2), Jimmy Baxter (2) and Angus Morrison (1) scoring, and we went on to reach the Final, losing near the end to West Bromwich.

Our second match with Ipswich Town — the second on the away schedule for this season — also ended well in North End's favour with a 5-1 victory. Ashworth was centre forward, deputising for injured Alex Dawson. Unfortunately his health broke down after this match and he has made only five League appearances.

Ipswich are under new management this season. They started with the former Newcastle United star centre forward, Jackie Milburn, successor of Alf Ramsey at Ipswich, but his health gave way under the strains and stresses of football to-day. Bill McGarry, former Huddersfield wing half, took his place.

Mr. McGarry is a younger manager, still on the sunny side of 40. He went to Watford in July last year after a spell as player manager with Bournemouth. Joining Huddersfield from Port Vale in 1951 he became a fine wing half and was twice capped by England. As a player he commanded respect and still does.

Ipswich have sampled both glory and depression in the past 10 years. Starting with promotion as Division III champions in 1953-54, they were promptly relegated, but returned after two seasons. Promoted Division II champions in 1961 they caused a sensation by winning the League championship the following season.

However, after three years in the top flight Ipswich went down again last May. Formed as an amateur organisation on 1887 the club did not go over to professionalism until 1936, then entering the Southern League. Two years later Ipswich were elected to the Third Division (South) of the Football League, and may be said to have done wonders in a comparatively short span. Good luck to them.

OLD FAVOURITES 12 Jimmy Dougal

Well-loved among North End's pre-war notabilities by our older supporters is the original "galloping ghost" of Deepdale, so called because if ever a player justified that well-worn expression "he came from nowhere" such a man was quick-as-an-eel Jimmy Dougal, a contemporary of many fine performers. When he came from Falkirk as a lathy outside right with a half-starved look in the early 1930's, to join an equally callow and youthful Willie Shankly, few except those who had seen the latent talent in him, gave him much of a chance. Frankly he seemed hardly strong enough to run 30 yards with the ball, but a good landlady and wholesome food, plus Will Scott's shrewd handling of him in training, soon produced the extra pounds and stamina required. His speed developed faster than his natural resource. Nevertheless he was a tricky customer for left backs to cope with because of his elusiveness and sudden, demoralising darts into the danger zone and early in 1934 he was competing for a place in North End's promotion team of that season. He was recalled for the last four matches. Mr. Jim Taylor still was not satisfied that outside right was the colt's best position and gave him a lengthy run as an inside forward in First Division football. Finally the Deepdale chief set everyone by the ears with a daring move which produced fruitful results. A new style of forward play was adopted to beat the stopper centre half and Dougal was the chosen instrument, Frank O'Donnell being allowed to go to Blackpool in November, 1937. Jimmy was successful in a team which came near pulling off the League and Cup double the following season, and the following year he was made prouder still by his selection to play for Scotland.

JUNIOR MEMBERS

BOTH CHRISTMAS PARTIES were huge successes. Gratitude and thanks are due to the Ladies' Committee for the wonderful way they brought this about and for all the hard work cheerfully undertaken.

THE JUNIOR FOOTBALL TEAMS are to play their fixtures on Sundays, and it is hoped that a playing pitch will shortly be obtained for regular use.

LAST SUNDAY'S FOOTBALL MATCH against Shell-Mex was cancelled owing to the pitch being waterlogged.

A TRIAL MATCH for all the playing members will be held at Willow Farm, on Sunday, January 10th, at 1-30 p.m. Players should meet at the Supporters' Club at 12-45 p.m.
